

Paris Eateries Seek UN Recognition as a Cultural Treasure from VOA

Members of a bistro owners association (1)_____ (GATHER) recently at Le Mesturet in central Paris. The eatery (2)_____ (BE) in the community for a long time. It (3)_____ (BE) also one of the places (4)_____ (ATTACK) by terrorists on the night of November 13, 2015.

Cooks and business owners (5)_____ (SAY) Parisian bistros are places where many different kinds of people (6)_____ (COME) together to share a low-cost coffee or meal. But they (7)_____ (WARN) that traditional bistros (8)_____ (THREATEN) by increasing rents and competition. Owners say the number of bistros in Paris (9)_____ (DROP) by half in the last 20 years.

Alain Fontaine is owner of Le Mesturet and president of the association. He said, "Our most beautiful love and friendship stories (10)_____ (BORN) in bistros and on terraces." He said tourists who go to the city's bistros "(11)_____ (FIND) a lively place, a place to share with the people of Paris – the people of Paris today, not the people of the past."

to arise	to perform an action, to create, to produce sth, to compel, to arrive in time for...
to take off	to construct, to found, to develop, to erect to choose	to select from a number of alternatives, to decide or prefer to stand	to be or cause to be in an upright position, to tolerate, to resist to give	to present, to contribute, to provide, to make a gift, to communicate, to announce to make	to emerge, become apparent (of a problem, situation or opportunity)
to build	to leave the ground (plane, bird, helicopter...) to remove clothing, to depart precipitously, to become successful, esp. suddenly (product, career...)

Present Simple	Present Simple NEGATIVE	Present Perfect	Past Simple	Past Simple Questions
I (ARISE)
He (CHOOSE)
You (TAKE OFF)
She (STAND)
We (GIVE)
It (MAKE)
They (BUILD)

Complete the sentences.

1. A memorial was at the site of the battle.
2. The children a cake for their father's birthday.
3. This question at every meeting, and we waste a lot of time on it.
4. All the cakes look so good, it's hard to just one.
5. He his old computer to his son.
6. The train was busy so we had to
7. The plane off at 07:00.

Practice your English with Dixie Langues: <http://dixielangues.weebly.com/> arisen, building, choosing, giving, standing, taking off,

1. in line when it's hot requires a special kind of stoicism. Quartz
2. Whatever your case may be, you can use these three tips from Meredith Crawford for a memorable brand that will attract a loyal fan base and endless career opportunities. Forbes
3. Big banks should quit so much money to shareholders and try making more loans instead. CNBC
4. GP and author Ellie Cannon lifts the lid on key signs that your job is you ill. Elle
5. Why are some Canadian farmers horses over tractors? CBC News
6. The Heathrow 3rd runway plan isn't just yet. The Times
7. Concerns have about the fate of a Miami golf course that the Beckham group wants for a soccer stadium. WSVN.com

Exercise Six ONLINE arose x2, built, build, chose, choose, give, gave, made, stands, take-off

1. Our plane'swas delayed.
2. I'll have tobetween fixing up my house or trying to sell it.
3. The doctorsmedical aid to the victims.
4. The principal willthe students their diplomas.
5. The problemfrom their lack of attention to what they were doing.
6. Theyhim head of the chemistry department.
7. Several unexpected topicsduring the discussion.
8. The coach hopes toa strong team this year.
9. Everyonewhen the judge enters the courtroom.
10. During the night, therea serious and unforeseen problem that had to be dealt with immediately.
11. Theya shed in the backyard.
12. Ia sandwich for my lunch.
13. I hope Ithe right gift for him.

