

UNESCO Names Reggae International Cultural Treasure from VOA

Ask questions to obtain the answers underlined in the following sentences taken from the text:

e.g.

David likes bacon. What does David like ? (Bacon)

David likes bacon. Who likes bacon? (David)

- 1) This week, the cultural agency of the United Nations – UNESCO...
- 2) ...– added reggae music to its list of international cultural treasures.
- 3) The purpose of the list is to teach about and protect many international cultural traditions.
- 4) Reggae music began in Jamaica and spread across the world with its calls for social justice, peace and love.
- 5) Born in the neighborhoods of Kingston in the 1960s,...
- 6) ...reggae songs were an expression of hard times and struggle.
- 7) But its rhythmic sound and hopeful lyrics also made it an enjoyable music.
- 8) Its most famous songwriter and performer, the late Bob Marley, ...
- 9) ...Bob Marley became an international star with songs like “No Woman, No Cry” and “Get Up, Stand Up.”
- 10) British artists such as The Clash and The Police mixed reggae's rhythms and sounds, as well as its political messages, into their music. This helped bring reggae to a wider audience.

