

UNESCO Names Reggae International Cultural Treasure from VOA

Conjugate the verbs in the text:

Over time, the music (1)_____ (TRAVEL) everywhere, from Britain and the United States to Latin America and Africa.

In the 1960s, reggae (2)_____ (GAIN) popularity in Britain and parts of the U.S., where Jamaicans (3)_____ (BEGIN) moving after World War Two.

In the 1970s and 1980s, the British punk rock music world (4)_____ (WELCOME) reggae. Soon, punk musicians (5)_____ (MAKE) reggae-influenced songs.

British artists such as The Clash and The Police (6)_____ (MIX) reggae's rhythms and sounds, as well as its political messages, into their music. This (7)_____ (HELP) (8)_____ (BRING) reggae to a wider audience.

Today, musicians from a wide field of styles, such as pop, R&B and even jazz, (9)_____ (CONTINUE) (10)_____ (BORROW) from reggae.

Match the verbs with the best definition.

to come apart	to interrupt someone when they're speaking to hang up	to become too big for something, to stop doing something because you are older
to get on	to separate into pieces
to give in/up	to eat outside the home, to go to a restaurant
to cut in	to end a telephone conversation
to grow out of	to be friendly (with someone), to make progress (with a project, a task...)
to eat out	to capitulate, to surrender, to relent

Present Simple	Present Simple (-)	Present Perfect	Past Simple	Past Simple (?)
We (COME) apart
He (HANG) up
I (GET) on/along with
She (GIVE) in You (CUT) in
It (GROW) out of
They (EAT) out

Use the verbs from the table to complete the following sentences.

- I out of Monopoly when I was a teenager.
- At Dixie we all with each other, and we often meet up after work.
- We stay at home during the week, but on Friday we often at a local restaurant.
- She, and interrupted the presentation twice.
- Why do cold callers call at mealtimes? I always on them.
- How do you fix a zip fastener if it ?
- The government says it will never to terrorist threats.

Complete the following sentences with the words in the list.

coming apart cutting in eating out gave in get along growing out hang up hanging up

1. Robert Mugabe to military pressure and resigned on 21 November.
2. You can prevent a lot of telephone scams by the phone. Just the phone!
3. of video games is natural. As you get older, you start to get busier with life and your goals change.
4. Much of the growth in the restaurant trade will come from around breakfast and lunch occasions.
5. Have you ever worked with someone you just cannot with?
6. British Prime Minister Theresa May's conservative government may be at the seams.
7. Enough is enough. Stop Interrupting Me! Why do people keep?

